COLORED BALANCER BUTTS

1-2-3 Fast, Easy, Balanced!

Just insert an F-20 into the butt end of a rod and screw our balancer butt end in with the added plates that fit your needs. The nice part is that you can simply change the plates whenever you want. Plates can be in either silver or gold.

Our winding checks are crafted with pride in Lancaster County, PA.

Available sizes: 19/64" - 28/64" in all styles - please specify size when ordering.

KNURLED – The narrow, knurled check is the most popular genre of nickel silver winding checks in the world. Our twist? This check, like its unknurled counterpart below, is essentially a slice out of the stepped portion of the geometry of our Broad Winding Check. ARCWCK(size)

PLAIN – These checks are the ultimate in a subtle transition—understated elegance. You're making rods because you can make them better, so for goodness sakes avoid those hideous molded rubber winding checks and put a little nickel silver on your next custom rod. ARCWCP(size)

BROAD – Crafted from solid nickel silver bar stock in a style reminiscent of traditional “tapers” which transitioned from the large diameter of the grip to the smaller diameter of the rod blank. Perfect for engraving! ARCWCB(size)

TIERED – Tiered, externally tapered winding checks with a delicate knurl on the upper tier have their historical basis in one of the classic rod shops that erupted from the Leonard-Kosmic tradition: Fred Thomas's shop. It's one of our favorite historic designs! ARCWCT(size)

SWOOP – The swoop check is another original design that stemmed from the desire for an exceptionally narrow check that would still cap off a finely tapered reverse half wells grip with distinction. ARCWCS(size)

Decorative Winding Checks & Trim Pieces

Beautifully made of aluminum, these decorative pieces are very popular in Japan for creating very stylish custom rods.
